CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

O ce of the Chancellor . Chancellor Brian Rogers . uaf.chancellor@alaska.edu . www.uaf.edu/chancellor/

Individual donors impact students and programs at UAF

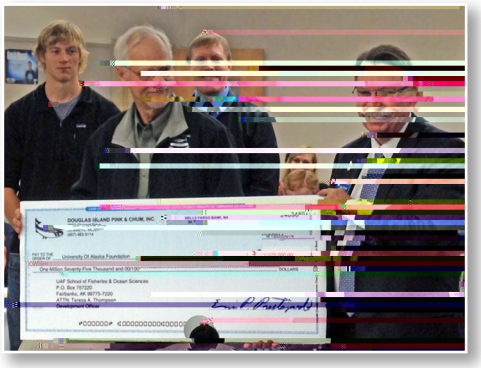
A generous donation of $869,471 from George Gordon, ’62, and Linda Dahl Gordon, ’65, has established the George E. and Linda C. Dahl Gordon Ri e Team Endowment, to provide scholarship support for quali ed students on the University of Alaska Fts o25gi9ks (a)9(n9(d3e12(r)r9e)7(li)8(t. T)101(ni0(r7.-10(t f)9 will have hands-on interactive elements and modern displays. Shumaker and Usibelli were recipients of the 2013 Association of Fundraising Professionals Eugene R. Wilson Outstanding Philanthropist of the Year award. Shumaker was also named the 2014 Rasmuson Foundation Distinguished Artist, recognizing her creative excellence and stature.

Celebrating alumni and students

Douglas Island Pink and Chum funds new endowment



AF

Achievements

Individual

Anonymous donated $100,000 to support Alaska bird studies and publications at UAF.

Michele Aubry and Peter Christensen made a gi valued at $31,990 to the Harvey Shields Fellowship in Archaeology.

Maria Edmunds, '95, donated $25,000 to establish the David C. Edmunds Memorial Scholarship, supporting military veteran students majoring in the geosciences.

Jane N. Holt made an additional planned gi to the university valued at $25,000.

e Edward J. Kuhn Revocable Trust donated an additional $10,000 to its endowed scholarship fund in the School of Education. e fund was established in March with a $40,000 gi .

James and Peggy Lund, '95, made a gi valued at $10,458 in support of UA Museum of the North exhibits.

Mary Jane McGary donated $10,000 in her rst gi to UAF, for the Strengthening Alaska's Native Languages project.

Richard Nyman made a $10,000 gi to his new fund supporting students in the Institute of Northern Engineering.

Robert Marovelli, '50, made a gi valued at $267,663 to establish the Ruth Blankenship Sandvik Memorial Scholarship for rural campus students.

Nancy, '53, and Bill Mendenhall donated $100,000 to establish an endowment in the College of Engineering and Mines.

e Jessie O'Brien McIntosh Trust made a $13,357 gi to support scholarships at UAF.

James D. Pruitt, '73, donated $14,141 to e Green Island Scholarship he established in 2013, supporting School of Management students.

Roger and Diane Ruess donated Roger's 2014 Emil Usibelli Distinguished Research Award of $10,000 for research at Bonanza Creek.

e Seattle Foundation facilitated a gi of $17,884 from John Robert and Mary Claus providing unrestricted support for the university.

Grace Berg Schaible, '49, '91, made a $25,000 gi in support of exhibits at the UA Museum of the North.

Aaron and Marisa Schutt donated $25,000 to the Troth Yeddha' Legacy initiative. Aaron Schutt is a co-chair for the initiative.

Peggy Shumaker and Joe Usibelli donated $20,000 to the Alaska Literary Series at the UA Press.

Marlene Trent gave $10,000 to the Robert H. Trent Memorial Fund to support quali ed petroleum or mining engineering students.

Guo Hua Xia, '94, and Mei Hau donated $10,000 for scholarships supporting quali ed rst-year music students.

Corporate/Foundation

Alutiiq Museum donated $25,000 to support the Kal'unek book project at the UA Press.

e Alzheimer's Disease Resource Agency of Alaska made a $29,050 gi to the fund it established in 2011, providing continued graduate research funding in the Alaska Basic Neuroscience Program.

Bernie Karl and Connie Parks-Karl, Chena Hot Springs Resort, donated swim and ice park passes valued at $10,005 to the School of Management.

CoBank made a $25,000 gi toward its four-year, $100,000 commitment to programs in the School of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences.

Crowley Petroleum Distribution donated $10,000 to the Crowley Scholarship, supporting two UAF students and two sheries students.

57 Degrees North made a $30,000 gi to support Alaska crab research in the School of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences.

Flint Hills Resources Alaska pledged $65,000, with $20,000 each for the Alaska Summer Research Academy and the College of Engineering and Mines, and $25,000 for the UA Museum of the North school programs.

Kinross Fort Knox made a gi of $340,000 toward its $1 million pledge to its mining endowment in the College of Engineering and Mines.

Great Bear Petroleum donated $50,000 to the GeoFORCE Alaska program in the College of Natural Science and Mathematics.

Holland America Line and Princess Cruise Lines Ltd. made a $45,000 pledge payment in support of the Marine Advisory Program and the National Ocean Sciences Bowl.

In My Element donated clothing valued at $34,927 to the School of Management.

Intel donated $20,000 to support the Department of Computer Science's RAVE: Train the Trainer program.

McKinley Capital Management made gi s totaling $21,000 in support of the School of Management.

e Pollock Conservation Cooperative donated quarterly gi s totaling $347,223 for its research center in SFOS.

Rasmuson Foundation

To learn more about the impact of giving,
contact UAF Development, O B 757530,
F , AK 99775, 907 474-2619
/.